

E. H. DUNCAN, Sworn for the State. I am acquainted with the general character of Mrs. Maud Bailey. I used to work at the same place she did and I know her personally also. Her general character in the community where she lives is bad and I would not believe her on oath.